BC Métis Federation 8th Annual General Meeting Announced

(Vancouver, BC) BC Métis Federation is notifying members, partners and friends that the 8th BC Metis Federation Annual General Meeting will be held Saturday, October 5th in Kelowna, BC at the Four Points Sheraton, Kelowna Airport Hotel.

BC Métis Federation Henry stated, “We are very excited to host this meeting at another location in British Columbia for our members. The membership is growing particularly strong in the Okanagan and we felt this is important to host this year’s meeting there.”

BC Métis Federation Henry added. “The agenda was recently approved by the board and we hope members and partners take the time to attend and be part of several important conversations and topics. There are many exciting and challenging issues to address and this is the most important time for eligible members to provide direction. We encourage all members and partners to attend.”

Included in this release is the Annual General Meeting agenda. For more information about the 8th Annual General Meeting in Kelowna go to www.bcmetis.com.
