

Oil & Gas Security Professional – Kitimat, BC

Canada's Leading Provider of Corporate Security is seeking full-time security professionals for positions in the Oil and Gas sector on the North Coast of BC.

At Securiguard, we believe that every person deserves a safe environment to live, visit and work. Our vision is to be the best at making people feel safe by inspiring our staff to "believe they can make a difference" in everything they do. With the ability to service clients across Canada including major centers, small towns, and remote locations by air, land, or sea, our team of 3000+ strong security and safety professionals, make people feel safe by offering a comprehensive selection of safety and security services and solutions.

If you are looking for a stimulating and rewarding entry level position with great potential for career advancement in corporate security and asset protection, this role is for you.

Hours of work: 12-hour shifts, 2 weeks in/out schedule. $283/day

Location: Kitimat, BC

In this position you will:

- Provide excellent customer service to both the client and site visitors
- Provide emergency response:
 - Respond to incident/emergency situations and follow required protocols
 - Coordinate with the police or emergency personnel when required
- Provide visual security presence:
 - Detect and deter unauthorized persons
- Access control at terminals and project sites
- Patrol designated areas
- Conduct radio check ins
- Identify and report safety hazards
- Report security breaches
- Submit a daily written report
- Maintain consistent records using company issued notebook
- Adhere to Securiguard's core Values, Vision, Mission statement
- Perform regularly scheduled site duties as required by client's Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs)
- Report Frequent shift activities

The Ideal Candidate will have:

- A valid BC Security License
- A Class 5 BC Driver's License with a clean driving abstract
- A personal vehicle to travel to and from the job site
- Will be able to pass the drug and alcohol test
- Excellent English communication skills to write descriptive and factual daily reports

Additional Considerations:

Completion of any of the following certifications:

- OFA 1 (Occupational First Aid)
- WHMIS (Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System)
- CSTS (Construction Safety Training System)
- PCST (Pipeline Construction Training)

Employee Perks We Offer:

- Extended health and dental benefits - conditions apply
- Discounted Cineplex movie tickets
- Recognition programs & events
- Flexible schedules
- Additional training & Uniforms

We're only accepting applications from individuals seeking full-time employment with the ability to get yourself to and from site.

To apply contact: jonb@securiguard.com

More about Securiguard:

Securiguard Services Limited has been at the forefront of the asset protection arena for almost 50 years by being a leading-edge innovative security and safety solutions provider. That is how we have become one of the largest and most trusted private security organizations in Canada. Securiguard has proven expertise in deploying security and safety personnel in a variety of industries including Corporate, Retail, Property Management, Industrial, Aviation, Marine, Government, Educational, and Industrial/Resource Projects and has the largest and highest accredited K9 detection and screening division in Canada.

With the ability to service clients across Canada including major centers, small towns, and remote locations by air, land, or sea, our team of 3000+ strong security and safety professionals, make people feel safe by offering a comprehensive selection of safety and security services and solutions.

At Securiguard, we believe you can make a difference – by making people feel safe, caring for the people around you, supporting your community, and by making a positive impact on the environment