

Environmental Coordinator- Pipeline

Location: Kitimat, BC, Canada

Job ID: R15194

Job Status: Full-time

Description

Job Summary:

You are an environmental professional who has extensive experience on pipeline construction projects. As an Environmental Coordinator you will be an integral part of the Project Environmental Management Team.

You will provide advice and recommendations to the Project Environmental Manager regarding potential environmental risk and solutions for risk mitigation. You will identify and manage the environmental aspects associated with the pipeline project providing environmental expertise and advice to the construction execution team and be an environmental subject matter expert providing support and guidance to the project construction activities.

Join the Leducor team in Kitimat, BC!

Essential Responsibilities:

- Supports the development of project specific documents including environmental management plans, waste management plans and watercourse crossing plans.
- Performs environmental assessments of project construction activities to verify compliance with approved project processes and identifying opportunities for improvement.
- Develops and implements appropriate environmental mitigation measures as required.
- Generates reporting and record keeping adhering to regulatory compliance as required.
- Plans and oversees various aspects of water management, including erosion and sediment control and watercourse crossings.
- Supports environmental incident preparedness, including training, response and reporting.
- Maintains a full understanding of the environmental requirements, including necessary permits and authorizations, applicable legal requirements, Best

Please send resume to CGL.Hiring@ledcor.com (Please clarify what position you are applying for) or directly on our website: www.ledcor.com/careers

Management Practices, and the requirements contained in the Project documents.

- Works with and supports the construction group to ensure implementation and compliance with the project environmental requirements.
-

Qualifications:

- 8+ years of combined education and experience in the delivery/management of an environmental compliance program.
- Experience working on pipeline construction projects required.
- Must be familiar with relevant BC regulations.
- CPESC designation highly regarded.
- Previous experience planning and monitoring watercourse crossing, including remediation.
- Extensive knowledge of environmental sampling including soil, water, and waste required.
- Must have previous experience in managing spill response activities including planning, training and response, as well as experience with environmental incident investigation and management.
- Waste management experience is crucial including domestic, hazardous, and drilling waste streams.
- Excellent writing, technical and organizational skills.
- Must be well versed in developing, monitoring, and auditing environmental practices and performance.
- Working knowledge of relevant environmental legislation, standards, and effective industry practices is required.
- Must exercise exceptional analytical, problem-solving, and decision-making abilities.
- Must possess a valid driver's license with clean abstract.

Work Conditions:

- Rotational shift
- Camp accommodation provided
- Benefits provided by CLAC

Please send resume to CGL.Hiring@ledcor.com (Please clarify what position you are applying for) or directly on our website: www.ledcor.com/careers