

Successful BC Métis Federation Annual General Meeting in Prince George

MEDIA RELEASE

Vancouver, British Columbia, September 26, 2023 — On September 23, BC Métis Federation (BCMF) members, directors, and partners met in Prince George for the 2023 BCMF Annual General Meeting, hosted by the Peyak Li Moond Métis Society.

The 2022-23 Annual Report and financial statements were reviewed, as well as information on progress towards the 2023-24 Action Plan. BCMF staff also provided updates on priority initiatives such as the BC Human Rights Complaint, Emergency Assistance Program, the Pacific Northwest Métis Cultural Centre project, and more.

“It was wonderful to meet in person to review the progress BCMF has made over the past year,” says Keith Henry, BCMF President. “Our members are engaged and passionate not only about advocating for the growth and prosperity of Métis people in BC, but also about celebrating our distinct culture.”

AGM attendees were entertained with cultural showcases, featuring fiddling and jigging at both lunch and dinner. Lively discussions were had around the future of Métis people in BC and excitement for another productive year.

– 30 –

ABOUT BCMF

The BC Métis Federation (BCMF) is a non-profit association that works with Métis communities to ensure the well being of BCMF members. Through grassroots efforts, BCMF advocates on behalf of its many members, living all across the province.

MEDIA CONTACT

Keith Henry, President, BC Métis Federation

P: (778) 388-5013

E: K.Henry@BCMetis.com

Li taan paasii. Li taan ki vyayn.

From our past. For our future.