

Job Description

Note: All Sections of this Job Description are compulsory

Position Title (Local): Heavy Equipment Operator
 CSG, Functional Group/Region: Hydrocarbons, Construction, Canada
 Reports To (Position Title): Foreman or General Foreman
 Number of Direct Reports: Varies
 Name Of Current Incumbent: Varies
 Why Does This Position Exist? Operate heavy equipment to assist in movement of objects and matter at construction and industrial sites.

MAJOR ACCOUNTABILITIES OF POSITION:

Priority (optional)	What – How – Why	Responsibility	% of total job (optional)
	Operate heavy equipment in a safe manner
	Perform pre-operational inspection and safety checks
	Performs basic maintenance of equipment as required, keeping equipment clean and organized. Advise Foreman of any required repairs.
	Reviews and understands all equipment manuals and load charts.
	Ensure cleanup is completed after each task.
	May perform other duties as assigned.

Job Description

Knowledge / Experience / Competencies Required

Job Specific Knowledge:

- Knowledge on equipment and proper use

Industry Specific Experience:

- Previous construction experience.
- Able to work outdoors in all types of weather.

Education – Qualifications, Accreditation, Training:

- WorleyCord Internal equipment specific operator certificate
- Valid CSTS (Construction Safety Training Systems) certification version 9

One Way Element:

- Share and believe in the OneWay vision and demonstrate the expected behaviors, competencies and performance associated with their role or task.
- Our people understand their potential interactions with others working in and around their work area such as:
 - people working above or below the work team
 - Simultaneous Operations (SimOps)
- We assess field activities procedures and introduce controls before starting work (e.g. in job hazard analysis); to ensure all people involved in the work understand the content and sign their acceptance immediately prior to commencing work.
- Construction equipment, operated by us or by others under our control, is operated in accordance with documented operating procedures which accompany the equipment.

People Skills:

- Capable decision-makers prepared to work independently when necessary.
- Be able to work as a part of a team.

Other:

- Good vision
 - The strength, stamina, and ability to use equipment safely
 - Coordination and manual dexterity
 - Must have demonstrated ability to work under minimal supervision
-

Please send your resume to Sandra Lemmon at sandra.lemmon@worley.com