

BC Métis Federation Announces 2024-25 Student Scholarship Recipients

MEDIA RELEASE

Vancouver, British Columbia, April 7th, 2025 — The BC Métis Federation (BCMF) is proud to announce the recipients of the 2024-25 Greg Mazur Student Scholarships, which aim to support Métis students pursuing post-secondary education. These scholarships provide essential financial support to eligible Métis students from British Columbia enrolled in accredited post-secondary institutions across Canada.

The following 20 students have been awarded a Greg Mazur Student Scholarship for the 2024-25 academic year, each receiving a scholarship of $1,500 to support their educational journey:

- Heather Adams
- Jennine Adams
- Hana Ballum
- Kateri Belisle
- Tina Brunelle
- Zev Demman
- Nicholas Desjarlais
- Elisa Desjarlais
- Madison Gouldhawke
- Amelie Guignard
- Morgan Harris
- Ben Hartl
- Brenda Hebert
- Anna Jackson
- Cherisse Klassen
- Kailey Lund
- Ty Tapley
- Melissa Therrien
- Aaron Torio
- Trinity Venne

These scholarship recipients represent the diverse talents and aspirations of Métis students in British Columbia. Many recipients are pursuing careers in healthcare, education, environmental sciences, and technology, demonstrating a strong commitment to community and social development.

Li taan paasii. Li taan ki vyayn.

From our past. For our future.

“The dedication, hard work, and determination shown by these students is truly inspiring,” said BCMF President Keith Henry. “Their perseverance and passion for their fields of study will undoubtedly contribute to the continued growth and strength of our Métis communities, and we look forward to seeing the positive impact these individuals will have on their communities and the world.”

The scholarship intake for 2024-25 is now closed and will reopen for the 2025-26 academic year at a later date. For more information on this scholarship program, please visit the Greg Mazur Scholarship Program Page at BCMetis.com.
